Sunday.

Darling Wife:-

Once more it is Sunday without you. Before I got up this morning I was wondering how many more Sundays would go by before you will be here. Honey love, I sure am lonesome for you and continually hope and pray it won't be long before you are here. I'm terrilly lonesome and hardly know what to do with myself. I have no desire whatever to go out and meet any body socially. I don't know why, but I suppose its because I'm so lonesome for you.

To-day I am going out with Uncle Morris to look for rooms and then we are going out to see my client and have her sign a release so that I can get that $50 from the street car company to-morrow morning. I sure do hope I get it signed up to-day. Then I guess the rest of the day will be spent as usual. Will probably go into some movie picture show and then go to another until the day is over.

Honey love, I'm not feeling very well lately. I don't know whether a not its from the disappointment, but I can tell you since last week, I'm kind of upset. Won't know what I am doing half the time. Oh, well, I suppose it will pass over shortly.

Toots, how are you feeling? I am wondering what you are doing with yourself to-day. Are you preparing yourself for the trip? Honey love, don't forget what I told you. Don't worse too hard, for if you can't finish what you want to there, we can bring it down here. Just look after your health as I am concerned about that. Hear?

How is mondear Toots mine? I suppose there was enough doing at the Seder. I could just imagine what happened. I spoke to Uncle Morris again about Zeiden and told me any time Zeiden wants to come here, he is welcome. His room is all prepared. It sure will be terrible when he leave. Mondear will feel badly, too.

The weather out is something wonderful. Every body is out walking, laughing and cheering and here I am all alone, feeling as blue as any one can feel. When are we going to be together, Honey love, tell me, won't you? Tell me you are going to leave on May 1st, so that I will be so happy. Honey love, you can't imagine how I feel over the shock of the disappointment. Seems I can't get over it, somehow, but I suppose it can't be helped and so won't talk about it anymore. I feel dreadfully blue, I can assure you.

Shall close now, honey love, with all my love, hugs and kisses to you, darling wife mine,

Ever lovingly

Joy.
